INTERNATIONAL SPACE STATION PORK

Astronauts first arrived at the International Space Station in November 2000. More than 230 astronauts from 19 different countries have spent time in the space station since then. They conduct research in the zero-gravity environment. The astronauts live and work in an area larger than a six-bedroom house. The space station orbits the earth at height of about 250 miles and completely circles the earth about 16 times a day. The solar panel array that powers it is so big that sometimes you can look up and see the space station moving across the sky at dawn or dusk.
